The International Military Protestant Convention (the « RIMP »)...

In 1951 a few Protestant soldiers decided to meet at « the Musée du Désert », high place of French Protestantism, to share their faith in Christ and their attachment to God.

Time passing by, this meeting became the International Military Protestant Convention (RIMP), place of sharing, renewal, and growth in faith for military Christians from Germany, Austria, Belgium, Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Great Britain, Switzerland, Hungary, Poland, America, Canada, Ivory Coast, Czech Republic, Lettonia, Slovenia, and of course France (home country and overseas). Today, the "RIMP" gathers just about 500 protestant soldiers coming from 20 different countries.

This year, our meditation is based on the theme : "FAITH and VIOLENCE"

Information

This event is authorized by the French Ministry of the Defence, it is under the auspices of the Chief of the French armies staff. We wait for all people, militaries or civilians of Defence ministries from all countries.

The Convention will take place at the "Espace Gard Découvertes" of Méjannes Le Clap (Gard) from Thursday 21. June, welcome from 18.00, to Sunday 24. June, leaving at 14.00. All information, the detailed programme, the workshops, Church services and hymns will be written in a welcome file given at your arrival.

The Convention is a military event and rather takes place in uniform (current service cloth or battle-dress). On Sunday morning : "summer" sortie cloth (short-sleeved shirt).

For all participants accommodated in dormitory, sheets are given. Hotels and campsites in the surroundings of the Centre offer facilities for those who want more comfort but at their own expenses (see page 4 all addresses for outside accommodation). Couples accommodated outside pay 160 €.

Méjannes Le Clap : 30 kms from Alès, one hour from Nîmes. A shuttle between the railway station of Nîmes and Méjannes Le Clap is planned on Thursday at 18.00 (buses on parking "Arrivée"). The shuttle back to Nîmes will leave Méjannes on Sunday at 14.00.
