2012 International Protestant Military Convention
21st June to 24th June, 2012 at Méjannes-Le-Clap (Gard/France)

Information Sheet

REFERENCES : The Convention has been authorised by the Ministry of Defence and is under the auspices of the Chief of Staff. Each of the three Forces and the National Police Force are publishing a memo allowing attendance at the Conference.

WHERE ? At the Espace Gard Découvertes at Méjannes le Clap in the Gard region. Méjannes is located 12 kilometers from St. Ambroix, near Alès.

WHEN ? From Thursday, 21st June to Sunday, 24th June 2012. The Meeting will begin on the Thursday evening with a meal starting at 6.30 pm and will end after lunch on Sunday around 2.00 pm.

WHO ? Attendance is open to all personnel, male and female, military or civilian, of the Ministry of Defence, the three Forces and the Police, and their families.

HOW ? The Meeting is a military event and will take place in uniform (generally standard service dress or fatigues). Regulation sports dress may be worn at breakfast and during leisure times. On Sunday morning : "summer" shirt-sleeve order (minimum white short-sleeved shirt).

ACCOMMODATION : Participants are accommodated in bedrooms and dormitories. These beds in dormitories are equipped with sheets, without extra fees.

Watch out : There are 339 beds. Participants put down to the Convention, whether they are single, in couple, visitors, chaplains, and who wish for a single or double room have to go for hotels or other welcome structures in Méjannes-Le Clap.

- Bus drivers could be accommodated at their expense. They would be lodged in a 3 bedded room in a booked building.

- Campers can come with their caravans, or their camping car in the neighbouring campsites. Complete list on Page 5.
